

Getting Started with Bloglines - www.bloglines.com

1. First, you will need to register with Bloglines - an easy process. Just fill out the requested information in the Register For Your Free Account box.

2. Once you have submitted your details, you will be taken to the Bloglines homepage where you can begin to personalize your account and add RSS feeds.

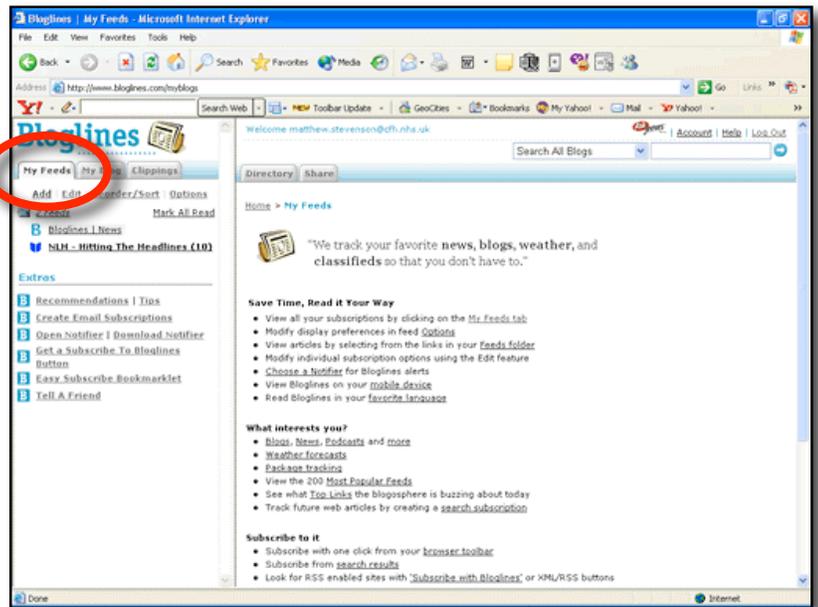

(Note: You will get a confirmation email to complete your registration. Once fully registered, you will use your email address and password to login.)

3. Click on the link to change your profile and select the settings you want for your account. Click Save Changes when you are finished with each screen of settings.

The My Feeds tab on the left hand side of the screen will list the feeds that you add in to Bloglines. Note: It automatically subscribes you to the Bloglines News feed.

The right hand side of the screen will display the individual items from a feed, once you click on the feed from the list on the left.

Now all you have to do is to find and add feeds into your reader!

Adding Feeds to Bloglines

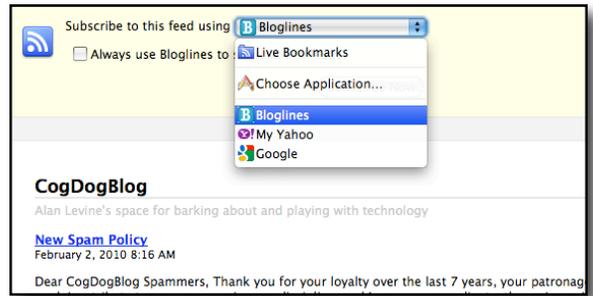

1. Go to a blog you would like to follow and look for the RSS feed button(s). To find a feed, scan the blog, especially near the bottom of the page, the sidebars and the header of the page.
2. Look for an orange RSS icon; the words "feed," "alert," "entries RSS" or "subscribe;" an XML icon or any of the icons shown to the right

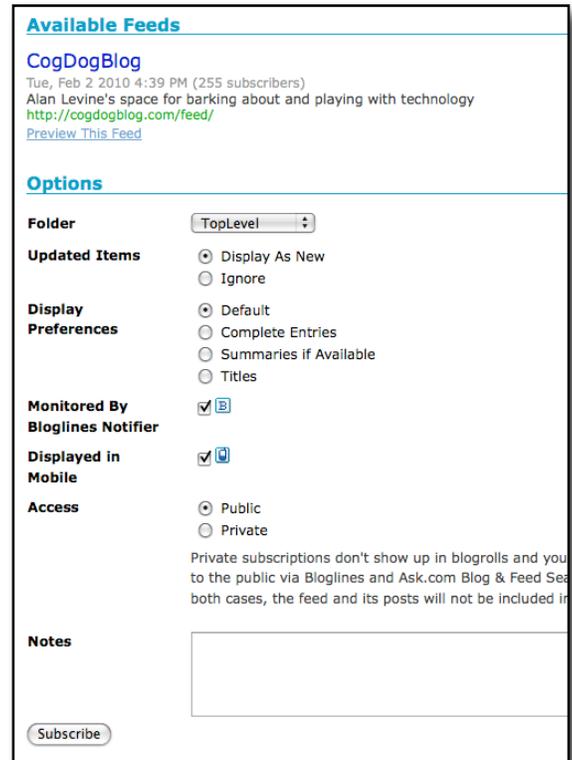

3. Click on the RSS link.

4. Select the correct reader. In this case, it is Bloglines.

5. Set the Options.

6. Click Subscribe.

7. The CogDog Blog feed shows there are 10 new items to look at. To view them, just click on CogDog Blog in the list on the left hand side:
